1. Personal Licences & Corkage

When do I need a Personal Licence?

A Personal Licence is required by the organiser, or a member of their team, if any exhibitors are bringing their own alcohol onto their stand for giveaways, or service.

Can I still bring my own alcohol if the organiser does not have a Personal Licence?

Yes. However, a member of the Matcham's catering team must be present on the stand whenever alcohol is being served or given away. You will be charged for the catering staff member for a minimum of a 4-hour shift.

Can I bring in my own bar?

Yes. Bars are permitted, provided that:

- The event organiser holds a Personal Licence.
- The relevant corkage charges have been paid to Matcham's.

What is corkage & How to order?

Corkage is the charge payable when exhibitors bring their own food or drink onto site. Please contact Matcham's, Harrogate Convention Centre's in house catering team, on: MatchamsCatering@harrogateconventioncentre.co.uk

What do I get if I pay the Alcohol & Soft Drinks Buyout Fee?

The Buyout Fee is a single payment that covers unlimited alcohol and soft drinks brought onsite during the event.

Please note:

- Covers unlimited drinks brought onsite.
- Does not cover coffee machine and/or hot drinks.
- Does not include storage or chilling.*
- Does not include glassware. *
- Please contact the catering team for more information.

There is also a buyout fee for soft drinks alone.

*If you would like storage & chilling and/or glasses this can be arranged with an extra charge.

2. Food Safety Consultant Requirements for Event Organisers

What is a Food Safety Consultant and why is it needed?

If exhibitors are bringing their own food, drinks equipment, or coffee machines, a Food Safety Consultant is required to:

- Ensure food safety legislation is being followed.
- Monitor food storage and temperature control.
- Check allergen compliance.
- Reduce the risk of foodborne illness.
- Protect exhibitors, visitors and event organisers.

For events serving food and drinks to the public, a Food Safety Consultant helps ensure a safe and compliant event experience.

If you want to bring in catering that requires the organiser to have a food safety consultant, speak to the organiser first before making final plans.

3. Coffee Machines & Hot Drinks

Can I bring in a standard coffee machine?

Yes, provided that:

- The organiser has appointed a Food Safety Consultant.
- Relevant corkage charges have been paid.
- The machine has a valid PAT test, or proof that the item was purchased within 12 months of the date of use at the venue is provided
- Power has been booked in advance.
- Allergens are clearly identified.

As part of the corkage charge, Matcham's can supply water for the machine if required.

Can I bring in a barista coffee machine?

Yes, provided that:

- The organiser has appointed a Food Safety Consultant.
- Relevant corkage charges have been paid.
- The machine has a valid PAT test, or proof that the item was purchased within 12 months of the date of use at the venue is provided
- Proof that the machine has been tested to PSSR 2000 regulations compliance within 12 months of the date of use at the venue is provided
- All allergens are clearly identified, and the operators have received an acceptable form of allergen training (e.g. FSA Allergen training) – proof to be provided upon request
- Power has been booked in advance.

As part of the corkage charge, Matcham's can supply water for the machine if required.

4. Snacks & Food

Can I bring packaged snacks such as crisps and chocolate to give away?

Yes. Provided:

- The relevant corkage charges have been paid.
- All allergen information is clearly displayed.

A Food Safety Consultant is not required for this.

Can I bring sandwiches or other food to give away on my stand?

Yes, but a Food Safety Consultant must be appointed by the organiser if the food includes high-risk items such as:

- Cooked Meats
- Poultry
- Dairy Products
- Eggs
- Seafood
- Cooked Rice
- Cooked Pasta
- Prepared Salads
- Soft Cheeses
- Coleslaw
- Pre-Cut Fruit
- Other Ready-to-Eat Foods

These foods support rapid bacterial growth and require strict temperature control.

Before bringing these items onsite, please check with the organiser that a Food Safety Consultant will be available.

Relevant corkage charges apply and allergen information must be provided.

OFFICIAL

Can I bring cakes or cupcakes from a bakery?

Yes, provided:

- Relevant corkage charges have been paid.
- All allergen information is available.

However, if you are bringing high-risk bakery products, a Food Safety Consultant must be present at the event.

Examples include:

- Fresh Cream Cakes
- Cheesecakes
- Cakes Containing Custard Fillings
- Mousse Desserts
- Tiramisu
- Cakes with Raw Egg Products
- Cream-Filled Macarons or Éclairs
- Fruit Tarts Containing Fresh Cream or Custard

Please check with the organiser that a Food Safety Consultant will be onsite.

Can I cook food on my stand to give away?

No.

Cooking food on exhibition stands is not permitted.

If you require hot food, this should be ordered through Matcham's Catering. Please contact them at: MatchamsCatering@harrogateconventioncentre.co.uk

5. Catering Orders & Food For Own Consumption

Can I order food and drinks directly to my stand?

Yes.

Matcham's, the in-house catering team at Harrogate Convention Centre, offers a Stand Catering Pack with a wide range of refreshments and catering options.

This is the easiest and safest way to provide food and drink on stands.

Please contact the Matcham's Catering Team for assistance with ordering.

Can I bring food for my own staff to consume on the stand?

Yes.

You may bring food for personal staff consumption. Please ensure it is stored safely and appropriately.

A Food Safety Consultant is not required for this and there are no corkage charges.

6. Refrigeration

Can I bring my own fridge for my stand?

Yes. You will need to:

- Ensure the fridge is PAT tested, or provide proof that the item was purchased within 12 months of the date of use at the venue
- Book power in advance.
- Inform the organiser that a fridge will be onsite.

7. Compliance & Venue Requirements

What happens if I bring food or drinks onsite without notifying the venue?

If food or drink is brought onsite without prior approval:

- Any applicable corkage fees will be charged onsite.
- Payment must be made by card.
- If charges are not paid, you will be required to stop serving immediately.
- If the external catering requires a Food Safety Consultant and/or a Personal License Holder and there is not one appointed, then you will be asked to stop serving immediately.
